

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

CRIMINAL #04-10384-PBS

UNITED STATES

v.

DANIEL KAMEN

DEFENDANT'S PROPOSED VOIR DIRE QUESTIONS

Pursuant to Rule 24(a) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the defendant Daniel Kamen moves that the Court question the venire as follows:

1. Are you or is any member of your family now employed by a law enforcement agency? Have you, or has any member of your family in the past been employed by a law enforcement agency? If so, how? If so, would that fact make it difficult for you to decide this case based on the evidence presented and the Court's instructions on the law?

2. Have you, or has any member of your family, been involved as a victim, witness, or a defendant in any criminal case? If so, please describe that experience. Would that experience make it difficult for you to decide this case based on the evidence presented and the Court's instructions on the law?

3. Do you have any feelings about people charged with committing a crime that would make it difficult for you to decide this case based on the evidence presented and the Court's instructions on the law?

3. Do you have any feelings about lawyers who defend people charged with committing a crime that would make it difficult for you to decide this case based on the evidence presented and the Court's instructions on the law?

4. Do you have any children under the age of 18? If so, would that fact make it difficult for you to decide this case based on the evidence presented and the Court's instructions on the law?

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL KAMEN
